

Evaluation and Needs Assessment

Training Services provides consultative services to health care providers and organizations to determine effective training solutions and systems change initiatives to include:

- Comprehensive assessment of client needs
- Process/impact evaluation of existing programs
- Inventory of resources
- Strategic mapping to create and design new programs or improve existing programs
- Program research for development of new programs